CROSSED OVER TO THE RAINBOW BRIDGE

MAY 22, 2009

Tracker was a wonderful little beagle who lived to be 13 years and 7 months.
He brought joy to all who met him.

He was a Reiki Master and had a calming energy on those around him.

When he looked at you, he seemed to look straight into your soul. A very intelligent and sensitive little beagle he was.

A friend once said that "Tracker was quite possibly the best looking dog he's ever seen." Another friend said that "He was a class act."

Tracker was my friend, my teacher and my loyal companion. A good listener, a protector and a good watchdog, what more can one ask for, except a few more years with this special precious treasure.

We are honored that he chose us to be his loving guardians.

He has now become God's little doorbell.

Until we meet again at the Rainbow Bridge.

All our love, your family,

Sylvia, Bob and Molly
